

A Different Home for Five Years

Helga, Fritz & Stephan Jäger

Helga, Fritz & Stephan Jäger

A Different Home for Five Years

A family with four children aged between five and ten leaves their village Germany to live in Iran for the next five years.

During this time, they travel around their new home in often adventurous ways, as well as visiting Turkey, Afghanistan, Pakistan, India and Nepal. Many impressive photos portray magnificent cultural monuments and landscapes, but even more so the diverse populations of these countries.

They return to Germany with five children.

With contributions by Wolfgang Burst and Wilfried A. Fathi
buch.one

